

Transcript of Hal's experience at Palisade Gardens

If you're contemplating moving into a retirement residence, don't leave it too late make the move. Make the move when you are still reasonably healthy and have energy to enjoy the activities offered to the residents. There is a number of advantages to living at Palisade Gardens, they have different options with the food plans, they have a happy hour which is very popular. It is a friendly environment and a great staff. I'm glad we made move when we did.
